PETITIONING THE COURT

No warrant requested. Emergency warrant issued.

U.S. Probation Officer of the Court, Camilla E. Duarte, alleges the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervised release.

Violation Type	Nature of Noncompliance
MC	The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
SC	The defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered.
SC	The defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.

In regards to the three above listed violations, on August 30, 2017, a home visit was conducted at the defendant's residence and contact was made with her boyfriend, Mark Quibell-Romo. It was determined, Mr. Quibell-Romo was a wanted felon, with an active warrant from the State of New Mexico Department of Corrections. It was reported he has resided there for at least six months. Mr. Quibell-Romo also disclosed he frequently used illegal drugs in the apartment. During a subsequent search of the defendant's apartment, marijuana, heroin, and Xanax pills were discovered, as well as drug paraphernalia, to include numerous syringes and a grinder.

The maximum statutory penalty: 2 years imprisonment; 3 years to life supervised release.
The revocation range of imprisonment: 3 to 9 months.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
Executed on.
